

Quiz Questions : Holtzman : "I'm going to steal your Chi now..."

TRADITIONAL CHIROPRACTIC PRINCIPLES

1. What is humanism?
2. Humanism is a commitment to the _____ without _____.
3. Rationalism invokes _____ & _____ as a basis for clinical decision making.
4. Holism sees the _____ better than its _____. Thus the body cannot be reduced to _____.
5. Conservatism believes in _____, _____, and that the patient should be a _____.
6. According to conservatism, _____ needs no help, only no _____.
7. Naturalism promotes healing via _____ and without _____.
8. Vitalism believes that there is a _____ which _____.
9. DD Palmer believed that health occurred when?
10. What are the parts of D.D. Palmer's Triune of Health?
11. What segments innervate the head, neck, heart, & lungs?
12. What segments innervate the stomach and esophagus?
13. Segments T7-T10 innervate what?
14. Segments T9-T12 innervate what?
15. What segments innervate the bladder, sex organs, lower colon, rectum, and uterus?
16. What is a somatosomatic reflex?
17. Give two examples of a somatosomatic reflex?
18. What is a viscerosomatic reflex?
19. What is a somatovisceral reflex?
20. What type of reflex was important in allopathetic medicine before technology replaced it.
21. What is the contemporary model for Palmer's Triune of Health?
22. What are psychovisceral reflexes?

PHILOSOPHY OF CHIROPRACTIC

23. What is philosophy?
24. What is rejected by the professional associations, most chiropractors, and not taught at any CCE college?
25. What is the definition of disease?
26. A vertebral subluxation is a frequent cause of _____ & _____ irritation of the nervous system.
27. What is the definition of health?
28. Vis Medicatrix Naturae believes the human body _____.
29. What are the four perspectives of mind-body medicine?
30. What do Physical Monists believe?
31. What do Epiphenomenalists believe?
32. What do Psychophysical Parrelists believe?
33. What view do chiropractors tend to adhere to?
34. Mind-body considers the patient's _____ of a symptom and symptom distress.
35. In mind-body, patients are the focus, not the _____.
36. Instead of being a therapeutic contaminant, _____ may be a legitimate clinical intervention.

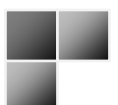

Quiz Questions : Holtzman : "I'm going to steal your Chi now..."

37. What is a scientifically acceptable explanation for the mind-body interaction?
38. Stress → _____ → lymphocyte receptors → _____.
39. Positive emotions → beta-endorphins → _____.
40. Negative lifestyle factors, infection, and food allergies result in what?
41. _____ leads to muscle spasms that then may initiate fibromyalgia, IBS, and cardiovascular reactivity.
42. Has a causal link between stress and immune function been officially established?
43. What is stress?
44. What is distress? What is Eustress?
45. What is local adaptation syndrome?
46. What are some examples of local adaptation?
47. What is localized adaptation syndrome's typical response?
48. What are the phases of LAS?
49. What is general adaptation syndrome?
50. What are the three stages of general adaptation syndrome?
51. During adaptation, the body should _____.
52. What are some major health disorders related to stress?
53. The potency of the chiropractic adjustment is attributable to its _____ and _____.
54. What are the three major scopes of chiropractic medicine and their percentages?
55. If chiropractors are a portal of entry doctor, what is their role in the health care system?

LEGAL ISSUES

56. What initiated the creation of the HIPPA?
57. The patient must be informed of _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, and the _____.
58. In ALL cases the doctor is in a _____ relationship, not a _____ relationship.
59. What is caveat emptor?
60. What tends to be the largest conflict of interest?
61. What is competency?
62. Watkin's Strategy of Practice Methods: What is the Cultist Method?
63. Watkin's Strategy of Practice Methods: What is the Empirical Method?
64. Watkin's Strategy of Practice Methods: What is the Theoretical Method?
65. Watkin's Strategy of Practice Methods: What is the Clinical Science Method?
66. What is malpractice?
67. What are the types of fraud?
68. What are the types of space and what are their respective distances?
69. What is the progression of sexual behavior and briefly describe each.
70. Females spend much energy coping with _____.
71. A _____ is an indulgence of personal desire at the expense of a patient.
72. What are the characteristics of a boundary violation?
73. What are a chiropractor's primary goals?

Quiz Questions : Holtzman : "I'm going to steal your Chi now..."

74. Can non-predatory boundary incidents be rehabilitated? Predatory?
75. When does a person have a power differential?
76. Patients are very much like _____, while doctors are like _____.
77. What are the sexual misconduct improprieties with patients?
78. What authorities must be reported to in the case of sexual misconduct?
79. Aggrieved patients of an intimate relationship often cite what results of the relationship?
80. Why are romantic relationships unethical?
81. Sexual attraction _____ have to mean sexual contact.
82. How long should you wait before asking a patient out?
83. What are the rules for avoidance?
84. Remember, Consent is not a _____.
85. What is sexual harassment?
86. Sexual harassment is based on _____, not the _____.
87. Sexual harassment must have an element of _____, be _____, and _____.

